
Special Counsel

Ann L. Strayer

als@severson.com

p: (415) 677-5616

f: (415) 956-0439

Ann has over 27 years of experience representing attorneys and design professionals facing all manners of professional liability and construction claims and monitoring professional liability claims for Certain Underwriters at Lloyds.

Ann L. Strayer is Special Counsel with Severson & Werson's Insurance Law Group. Ms. Strayer's practice emphasizes representing Certain Underwriters at Lloyds in the monitoring of claims and potential claims against attorneys and design professionals in legal, malpractice, construction defect and construction delay claim matters, and related insurance coverage matters. Ms. Strayer has extensive experience making insurance coverage determinations, assessing insureds' liability, making settlement recommendations, attending settlement conferences, and monitoring trials.

Ms. Strayer also has additional experience litigating product liability and personal injury claims.

Ms. Strayer was a member of the 1988 United States Olympic Rowing Team.

Education

- Suffolk Law School, J.D., 1990
- Princeton University, B.A., 1982

Admissions

- California

Areas of Practice

Trials

Construction

- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Construction Litigation
- Environmental and Land Use

Insurance

- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Directors & Officers Liability
- Environmental and Land Use
- General Liability Defense
- Insurance Coverage & Underwriters Representation
- Insurance Defense
- Products Liability Defense

Professional Liability Defense

- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Directors & Officers Liability